

Contents

of

Four Indian Novels in English

Special Issue, April 2007

Editor: Salil Biswas Assistant Editors: Lily law : Reena Sinha

PEGASUS

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH, HERAMBA CHANDRA COLLEGE, 23/49 GARIAHAT ROAD, KOLKATA - 29

Foreword

India through Indian Eyes: Introducing Four Indo-Anglian Novels
Sudeshna Kar Barua

Mulk Raj Anand's Coolie: Colonization and Gandhism
Anuradha Basu

The Transcendence of Sexuality in Mulk Raj Anand's Coolie
Lily Law

Reading The Guide
Sanjukta Das

Style & Technique in R.K. Narayan's The Guide
Indrani Deb

Viewing Narayan's Velan
Sudeshna Kar Barua

R. K. Narayan's Rosie
Piyali Ghosh Sirkar

Voices in the City as a Modernist Novel
Sreemati Mukherjee

The City in Voices in the City
Sanjukta Das

The Problem of Estranged Self: the case of Nirode in Anita Desai's Voices In The City
Subarna Bhattacharya

Through the Child's Eye: Rahel and Estha in The God of Small Things
Srabasti Guha Thakurta

How Green Was Their Valley: An Environmental Reading of the The God of Small Things
Sumita Banerjee

The God of Small Things: Narrative and Narration
Sanjukta Das

The God of Small Things: A Foucaultian View of Violence and Power
Indrani Deb

Achebe's Things Fall Apart – A Postcolonial Discourse
Arpita Chattaraj (Mukhopadhyay)